

WANTED: United Reformed Church members to candidate for CHURCH RELATED COMMUNITY WORK MINISTRY

Are you concerned for communities and their development? You could be actively involved with people in the issues that affect their lives and work both in the church and the community.

Do you want to make church a place of relevance and compassion? You could proclaim the love and mercy of God through community development work.

Have you considered Church Related Community Work Ministry?

Church Related Community Workers are:

- called by God,
- professionally trained, and
- commissioned to enable the church to live out its calling

As a Church-Related Community worker you can:

- Develop new skills
- Receive a grant whilst you learn
- Enjoy flexibility and diversity in your working life and receive a ministerial stipend and housing

For further information on CRCW ministry in the United Reformed Church contact the CRCW Development Workers, Suzanne Adofo or Steve Summers

Email: crcw@urc.org.uk
Tel: 0207 916 8653