

Children and Youth Development Practitioner Yorkshire Synod

Salary:	£27,148
Actual salary	£27,148
Hours of work:	5 days per week (35hrs) flexible including evenings and weekends
Fixed term for 2 years

An exciting opportunity has arisen within The United Reformed Church Yorkshire Synod, to appoint an experienced Children and Youth Development Practitioner. You must have experience working with children and young people in a Christian setting, having the ability to inspire and enthuse young people and their leaders in God's Mission. You should also possess exceptional organisational and communication skills as you will be expected to work strategically at Synod level.

The post holder will work across the geography of Yorkshire's 98 Churches, with the councils within the structure of the Synod, and the Moderator. The successful candidate will work closely with our other Children and Youth Development Practitioner.

Application pack available from the synod office at office@urcyorkshire.org.uk

The Closing date for applications will be Thursday 28 February 2019. Interviews and practical assessments will be held on Thursday 28 March in one of the Yorkshire churches. Candidates applying for the post are asked to keep this date free.

It is a genuine occupational requirement that the post holder is a committed Christian.

Informal enquires, can be made to Mrs Sally Duxbury or Mrs Anne Ward Tel: 0113 289 8490 who will arrange for an informal discussion with one of the team.

Completed applications must be returned to office@urcyorkshire.org.uk

The post is subject to an enhanced DBS check.
