Mrs Morrison also welcomed everyone including new representatives and those at Synod for the first time Mrs Rosie Buxton, The Rev Jo Clare-Young, The Rev Heather Pollard, The Rev Roberta Topham, The Rev Peter Cross and five lay people.

4. Present

There were 65 Lay people, 24 Ministers, 6 Retired Ministers, 2 CRCWs and 1 retired CRCW.

5. Apologies

Apologies were received from 5 Lay people, 8 Ministers and 3 Retired Ministers.

6. Minutes

The minutes of the Synod meeting held on Saturday 10th March 2018 were agreed as a correct record and signed by Mrs Morrison.

7. Matters Arising

Since the meeting in March, Synod had met on a number of occasions.

It met first on Sunday April 29th at 6.00pm at Headingley St Columba United Reformed Church for the induction of The Rev Samantha Sheehan to "Generation Y" and Universities Chaplaincy Ministry in Leeds.

It then met at 2.00pm on Wednesday May 16th at Stainland and Holywell Green United Reformed Church for the induction of The Rev Angela Lawson to serve that church as a non-stipendiary minister.

It met again ten days later at 2.00pm on Saturday May 26th at Moldgreen United Reformed Church for the induction of Mrs Rosie Buxton to Church Related Community Work Ministry in the Huddersfield Churches.

On August 11th, Synod met in Scarborough for the ordination and induction of The Rev Jo Clare-Young to serve at Emmanuel St John's, Scarborough, St Andrew's, Scarborough, and Flowergate, Whitby.

And finally, on October 6th, Synod met at New Hope United Reformed Church, Halifax, for the induction of The Rev Heather Pollard, to the Halifax and Upper Calderdale Pastorate of the United Reformed Church – (Heath, Luddendenfoot, New Hope and New Providence churches)

8. Agenda

There were no additional items.

9. Synod Notices

The Clerk asked that Synod representatives to take note of the information they had received with the Synod mailing.

10. Date and Place of the next Synod meeting

Synod next meets on Saturday March 9th 2019 at Moldgreen, Huddersfield, and thereafter it will continue with the usual pattern of meeting on the second Saturday in October and the second Saturday in March.

11. Appointment of Tellers

The following were appointed as tellers for this meeting of Synod:

The Rev Simon Copley, The Rev Zaidie Orr, Mrs Sheila Telfer and Mr Willie Duncan.

12. Opening Worship

Led by The Rev Tim Lowe, the minister at St Andrew's.

13. A Crisis and an Opportunity

Introduced by The Rev Jason McCullagh with further input from The Rev Alison Micklem, The Rev Jamie Kissack, The Rev Ashley Evans and The Rev Simon Copley. On-going work in this area will now be referred to as Vision and Opportunity and should be underpinned by prayer. Several myths regarding the status and future of the churches in the Yorkshire Synod had been revoked by this piece of work to which 49 churches had replied. Synod plans to release a substantial sum of money in loans and grants, provide advice regarding fundraising and provide companionship to Mission and Care Groups. Support will be given to churches needing to close. Due to the age profile of the URC members of the Yorkshire Synod there is a narrow window of opportunity to implement change. Any churches who had not responded or would like to send in further comments were asked to do so by 7th December 2018. Discussion will continue and further proposals will be brought to future Synods for consideration.

14. The Synod YouTube Channel

Introduced by Mr Alex Walker. The Yorkshire Synod Video Resources Group will launch YouTube videos containing biblically sound material, worship and mission material on 9th December. Facebook, Instagram and Vlogging will be used by Synod Officers and the Video Resources Group to stream material. The first video will focus on Luke 1 v 68 – 79 and contributions for the video should be sent to the video resources group by 11th November.

15. Report from General Assembly

Introduced by Mrs Val Morrison and given by Mrs Janet Virr. Janet reported on the content of the sessions at General Assembly expressing concerns about whether certain actions met with the URCs stance on equality and diversity, particularly in how remaindered business was handled. Sessions focussing on journeys and faith were more accessible than some of the procedures where the language and related discussion seemed 'heavy' or pedantic. Elders would probably benefit from training in preparation for General Assembly but should be encouraged to attend. The perception of Synod Representatives in the South of England regarding spirituality in the Northern Synods seemed disparate with the reality.

16. Announcements

- Mrs Sheila Duncan reminded Synod that Church Property is held in trust and whilst churches have the authority to decide how lettings are organised, churches could avoid a lot of hassle if they consulted the Synod at an early stage when problems arose or third parties approached them regarding matters that affected church property.
- Rev Jamie Kissack gave information about a visit to Palestine. There is space for one person to attend from Yorkshire Synod. Application Forms can be obtained from Church House by emailing carole.sired@urc.org.uk. The closing date for the return of completed application forms is Tuesday 18 December 2018.

- Details were also given about a Christian Resources Exhibition to be held in Manchester on 13th and 14th March 2019.
- Mrs Ann Coates informed Synod of the Mission Community Learning Day to be held at Gleadless URC on Saturday 3rd November. Those intending to attend this training should contact Mrs Val Morrison at valmorrison7@btinternet.com.
- Rev Dr Jim Coleman announced that training – ‘A Taste of Appreciative Enquiry’ is scheduled for 30th November and 1st December. Interested parties should contact him.
- Rev Barry Parker drew attention to the Fair Trade stall and explained payment could be by cash or card.
- Mr Alan Kendall invited churches with Pilot groups to feed into an upcoming review and those without Pilot groups to explain why they have not chosen to run such groups.

20. Financial Resources

Willie Duncan explained points related to Synod Financial Resources

1. Key Facts and Figures

There had been a 16% decline in the number of churches in Yorkshire Synod and 44% in membership between 2004 and 2018.

2. The Budget for 2019

An explanation was given of the projected deficit of £694,668 in 2019 and £748,314 in 2020. This was a result of the staffing review and the need to appoint a Synod Clerk, Synod Property Officer and Trust Secretary and also due to the decision to extend the contracts for the Children and Young People's Development Practitioners. In addition £500,000 would be released in response to the Vision and Opportunity audit. Criteria for accessing the £500,000 would be given at March Synod. £50,000 would be released for transitional ministry for the Huddersfield URCs.

Resolution No. 2

Synod approves the 2019 budget as presented to the October 2018 Synod meeting

The resolution was passed unanimously

3. Mission and Ministry Contributions

There would be no change to contributions.

21. Some Stories of Mission

1. Synod Mission Fund

- Stocksbridge Community Award – The Rev Ian Lucraft explained how with the help of £7,500 p.a. from the Synod Mission Fund and £10,000 from Methodist sources, Christ Church Stocksbridge had been able to establish The Meeting Place which was tackling isolation amongst Young Adult Males and other lonely or isolated people. The project was a joint winner of the Congregational Insurance Community Awards announced at General Assembly. Ian emphasised the need for the continued commitment from the Mission Fund Panel as statutory bodies and outside funders often required proof that future funding was secured.
- Hope 2018/Sheffield – The Rev Zadie Orr reported on a Mission based fun day that had been held in Sheffield on 28th July in response to Hope 2018. Synod watched a time lapse video of the event.

Both ministers thanked the Mission Fund Panel for the release of funding for these projects.

2. Synod Mission Fund Criteria

There had been a review of the criteria for and timing of Mission Fund applications. The main recommendations included the Mission Fund Panel meeting four times a year instead of twice; raising the maximum small grant award from £1,000 to £2,500 and abolishing the one application per calendar year restriction for small grants. Church groups would also be eligible to apply. A question was raised regarding the larger grants – 'What is the maximum amount for which churches can apply?' Chris Reed explained – technically, none, but to date, grants have not exceeded £100,000

Resolution No. 6

Synod agrees to the recommendations for changes to the Synod Mission Fund outlined in the report of the Review Group 14" May 2018

The resolution was passed unanimously.

3. The Manor Project and CRCW Ministry

Simon Loveitt (CRCW – Sheffield Manor Project) reported on this project. 2018 has seen the celebration of 30 years of CRCW ministry with work in 55 settings. Simon emphasised the value of this type of ministry and the need for people to candidate. Interested parties should contact Simon or Steve Summers, Development Worker for CRCWm in the URC. Simon outlined how, by closing and refurbishing a church, the Manor Project had been able to introduce a range of Mission based work – Stay and Eat Club, After School Clubs, Credit Union and less dependency on their foodbank. The aim was to wind up the food bank by 2020 and provide clients with better ways of managing when the impact of Universal Credit being introduced in Sheffield this year takes effect.

4. Vocations – the journey through the candidating process

Jenny Horton who is training for ministry spoke about the candidating process describing some of her studies e.g. TLS Foundation Course and Developing Community Experiences and Gateways into Worship. These enabled Jenny to become an accredited lay preacher. Jenny candidated to become a CRCW but the eventual outcome was acceptance for training as a Minister of Word and Sacrament. Jenny stressed that such journeys begin with a conversation and we should go and tell people if we think they should candidate at this time when there is a need for new ministers.
