Briefing

Number 134

25th July 2024

Summer Invitations

Two weeks ago, this coming Friday saw the start of the 2024 General Assembly and in the end fourteen of us travelled to the Hayes in Derbyshire to be your representatives. It was an uplifting, exciting, challenging and spiritually rewarding experience for all of us. The dry details have appeared online here General Assembly papers - United Reformed Church, and those who attended will expand upon the weekend further at our next Synod meeting in October. I'll be sending out more details about that in due course, but one of the highlights was to welcome Rev Tim Meadows, seen here, as the new Moderator of General Assembly. Now I hear that we in Yorkshire have an opportunity to welcome him to God's own County as he will be leading worship at Heckmondwike URC on Sunday 18th August at 10.30am. Although it's not a SPen And Calder Enterprise church service, the good folk at Heckmondwike do extend a wide invitation to listen to Rev Tim and to show him how we in Yorkshire can work to increase the Kingdom here. I'm also told that it is also a chance too for Heckmondwike to show off their new AV equipment, the purchase and installation of which was supported by the Synod Mission Fund (applications always welcome – contact the Clerk for details). So, if you want to join Heckmondwike in their service, pop WF16 0DY into the Sat Nav and enjoy the worship and fellowship on offer.

We have now reached the height of summer and the Clerk has dug about at the back of his wardrobe and has found his swimming trunks (as he heads off for his hols) and The Briefing carries on mentioning Advent and Christmas. You will find details below on how to get a discount on the URC's 2024 Advent packs. Not only that but the Springs Dance Company are still offering their services to churches with their acclaimed Journey of the Magi presentation. There is nothing like forward planning, so please contact the Wilderness team to order the Advent Packs and consider whether your church can be on the tour list for the Journey of the Magi.

The Invitation is still open from Herringthorpe URC to join them at their Summer Fun Day on August 15th, and I would like to highlight two very special invitations, one this coming Saturday 27th July when we welcome Joe Amoah into Harrogate St Paul's, and on the following Saturday, on 3rd August when we welcome Simon Cross to the Hull Churches at St Ninian's & St Andrew's. Full details can be found on the Synod Calendar at <https://urcyorkshire.org.uk/calendar/>

Finally, please let me know what you have been up to in your churches and the plans you have for the latter end of the summer and early autumn by dropping me a line at clerk@urcyorkshire.org.uk and I'll showcase it in the next edition, due out on Thursday 15th August.

Thank you and God Bless,

Tim Crossley

Synod Clerk

And Finally

Although it may seem a little late to bring this, but the Create team working through the Darnall and Attercliffe project which is part supported by the Synod Mission Fund celebrated Pentecost by learning about Christianity around the world. They were blessed to have videos about a church in Kenya and two of the mums from Create also shared their home-made food from Poland (including learning the language) and from South Africa. It was a powerful time, especially when people were listening to testimony. Foods were tried from different countries and spent time thinking about how our faith makes a difference.

On the Saturday before Pentecost, the local churches blessed the local area with a free Funday on the local park. Each church contributed generously to the costs and we are grateful to Together for Sheffield who also supported it financially. After lots of planning, and with trepidation – would the weather be ok? Who would come and would families come along? How would it all work? - we set up and waited for people to come along.

The weather was fantastic – in fact possibly the sunniest day of the year so far! And we needn't have worried about people coming. We had over 500 people come along and join in with the fun. There was a bouncy castle, face glitter, circus skills, craft activities, a poetry wall, bubbles, table tennis and games. The clothing bank offered clothes, and we had an organisation giving free books, and were grateful to all those who donated cakes. There was a prayer tent that was supported by Christians from churches outside Darnall and they were able to pray with a number of people. Alongside all the activities, there was interactive drumming, Bollywood dancing, storytelling (including the story of Pentecost) and singing old school bangers.

It was a wonderful day, and as the event finished, people were already asking about another one. Watching families and friends come together, hearing people phoning friends and telling them to come along and watching people from lots of different nationalities, cultures and faiths, coming together was wonderful. There was something so powerful in the way the churches all came together in unity, and served the community, on the day before Pentecost.
